

Rev. Brenda Jean Wilson

April 25, 1951 - March 24, 2026

On April 25, 1951, Brenda Jean Wilson was lovingly born in Davidson County to the union of Matthew Wilson and Lee Ola Henderson Kemp Wilson. From the very beginning, her life was one of purpose, faith, and compassion.

After a life devoted to family, ministry, and service to others, Brenda peacefully made her transition on Tuesday, March 24, 2026, at Moses Cone Hospital, answering God's call and entering eternal rest.

Brenda attended Thomasville City Schools and Brookstone College, where she graduated. She later became employed in the public sector as an EMT and Medical Records/Med Tech, dedicating her work to assisting others within the healthcare community.

Pastor Brenda was passionate about sharing her faith, traveling, and spending quality time with her family. She attended Zion Tabernacle for over 40 years. During this time Pastor Wilson served under Elder H.H. Medlock, Rev. James Wood, Elder Jessie O. Baldwin, Elder Marshall A McCoy, and National Mother Rev. Odessa McCoy. She also faithfully served as the shepherd of Mount Olive FBH Church for 3 years, where she pastored God's people, encouraging them to trust in God and grow in their faith.

Brenda was preceded in death by her parents; her infant son, Charles Clark; three sisters, Mary Elizabeth Wilson Sanders, Lillie Mae Wilson, and Sharon Wilson Stafford; and two brothers, Odell Wilson and John Thomas Wilson: one granddaughter, Jalyhia Watts.

Pastor Brenda leaves to cherish her memory two daughters, Ayonia Watts (Andric Rey Jr) of Greensboro, NC, and Tonya Watts of Thomasville, NC; one sister, Dorothy Wilson Jackson of Georgia; and two brothers, Reginald Foster of High Point, NC, and Samuel Wilson of Lexington, NC. She is also survived by eight grandchildren: Banasia Bynum, Bryana Bynum, Ayden Bynum, Ja'vonte Watts, Jayla Watts, Jasmyn Brevard, Ja'Harrie Brevard, and Equality Smith; and one great-grandchild, Jakor Watts; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
